As well as establishing the Senate the University of Western Australia Act 1911 establishes other formal statutory governance elements (Convocation and the Guild of Undergraduates) which sit outside the academic and administrative governance structure portrayed in this diagram.